Canberra 2022

Once again The Hackers managed to find fine enough fine weather in what seems to have been a very wet summer, to enjoy 3 days of great golf on superbly conditioned courses.

Our return to Gold Creeks after our last visit way back in 2009 was a real eye opener for those of us who had been there before and also enjoyed by the newcomers. It was in great condition and we were welcomed by Joe (the lady professional who told me when we arrived she had played in the Antill Park Pro Am – last held in 2014 and had enjoyed the day and the course). There are many more trees and houses now but the course is still generous in its driving areas and the fairways well maintained.

Yowani, too, was a delight (last played there in 2014) with the long standing rye grass fairways in great shape. By far the 'tightest' course of the three we were a little unlucky to strike green maintenance under way but it wasn't the worst we have faced on tour – that dubious award goes to Yarrawonga Murray course many years ago. I had forgotten how much I liked Yowani until we started out again so we won't wait so long to re-visit next time.

Finally Gungahlin Lakes was, as usual, up to the high standard we have come to expect but I do note that this course too has tightened up as the trees have grown and now intrude somewhat on the errant shot. The 10th hole in particular, at just 304m and rated 4 for the men and 3 for the ladies, is frought with danger and has developed into a spectacular short par 4.

Accommodation was good at The Tradies and we all enjoyed a convivial couple of hours in the lounge and the dining room.

Tony Arnold emerged as the champion surviving successive wipes on the last 2 holes of the tour to win by a shot from Bobby Norris with Michael Lees another shot further back. Kieran McGuire and Tony Arnold tied for the best scratch score (although I omitted to mention Tony's name at the presentation) and I won my 4th Tour NAGA comfortably if not pleasurably. Malee Vanderwiel was best lady golfer on tour.

The Teams event was close (Green Team aside) with only 14 points between 1st and 3rd with the Red Team emerging victorious. Biggest winners in the skins were Kieran McGuire with $64 on the first day, Bobby Norris won $80 and Tony Arnold won $48 on the second day and Trevor Gough collected $80 on the final day.
