GOLD COAST TOUR

November, 2022

The return to the Gold Coast after 14 years was every bit as good as we expected. GolfOz looked after us well and apart from a small hiccup with car parking it was relatively uneventful.

Geoff Herbert won the Tour Champion's title after John Hardy set the pace early and led after the first two days but faded in the run home while Trevor Gough struggled through to take the NAGA title. The Green Team finished too strong for the Reds after having a lead of just 1 point coming into the last round. Best skin of the week was $64 for a 3 pointer at the 8th at Burleigh won by John Hardy.

The accommodation apartments were excellent value for money and very comfortable but one parking space per apartment presented a small difficulty we had to work around.

The weather gods didn't smile upon us much and the drenching we received from the first hole at Burleigh was up there with the best when the first group half-way down the first hole could not be seen from the tee through the downpour.

My view of the courses –

Royal Pines – in excellent condition with hard and very fast greens and fairways. The strong wind made ball control very difficult and the Grahame Marsh fetish for swales feeding into bunkers and hazards is very frustrating and expensive. All in all, I think the course is designed for low A Grade player's and far too penal for most club golfers. We won't return to Royal Pines because I don't like it.

Burleigh – putting aside the rain for the first 5-6 holes, this course was popular with everyone. In pretty good condition considering the ordinary east coast weather of the past few months, it is a very good club member's course; challenging but fair and we'll keep this one on the agenda.

Hope Island – in good condition and probably the most popular course of the week. The wind was strong and blustery but the trouble on the course is in plain sight and at least the rain stayed away as the sun came out and the temp climbed to about 25. Any return to the Gold Cast would include Hope Island.

Lakelands – also well liked and in good condition although a couple of greens were under stress. The new par 3 - 17th is being played on a temporary green but that aside, the course is fair with generous fairways. Again, although the wind was tricky at times, we'll return to this one next time.
